TO THE CLASS OF '39 FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

FOR more than a century, year by year, this College has been greeting new students—and the alchemy of the Wake Forest Spirit soon transmutes new students into old friends.

As you enter under the 1909 Class Arch, you will see that the campus is enclosed by stone walls—not prison walls to shut you in, but friendly boundaries which enclose and define a domain which you may call “home,” so that you need never for a moment think of yourself as a stranger.

We welcome you to your new home for work and play and good fellowship and the expansion of that arbiter of your destiny—your soul.

We stand on the threshold to greet you.

THURMAN KITCHIN.

STUDENTS AND THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The student Body of Wake Forest in order to "maintain and perpetuate the high ideals for which the College has ever been justly proud and to promote the common interests and general welfare of our college community" established in 1921 a form of student government of which the two chief structures are the legislative body and the Student Council.

The Council consists of twelve representatives from the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes and the President, Vice President, and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body, all of which are elected by the students. The Council governs all student conduct and is guided in its decisions by the Constitution of the Student Body. All decisions of the Council are reported to the Faculty. These bodies coöperate in adjusting problems of student discipline.

The legislative body consists of eleven men, elected in the same manner as the Council, and the President of the Senior Class who automatically becomes chairman. The purpose of this body is to enact such laws or regulations as circumstances may demand. The Council sits with the Legislature for the purpose of either approving or rejecting the action of the Legislature.

In order for the Student Government Association to function properly, every student should realize that he is an integral part of the Student Government, and in so being, should be willing to do his part by coöperating with the other factors of student government. It is also the duty of each student to take an active part in the selection of his representatives on the Council and in the Legislature by voting honestly and conscientiously.

This form of student government, of which every student is a part, serves to promote the wholesome and democratic spirit which is characteristic of Wake Forest and to promote the general welfare of the student and college community.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

Out of the traditions of the past generations of college students has developed the Honor System of student government at Wake Forest. Somewhere in the life of the College when student government was unknown there was planted the seed which was to germinate into the system we now have in operation. Through the assumption of responsibilities by students there grew up the idea of "to be expected" conduct of students, and every student was as zealous that his conduct should be what was becoming to a Wake Forest man as was the faculty. In this way student government was developed, and the Honor System with it, when student government was unknown in theory.

The Honor System simply means that every man is on his honor as a gentleman to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a gentleman, and to report violations of this code of ethics on the part of others. It has grown up in the life of our College that men are more good than bad and, given an equal opportunity, will elect the right in preference to the wrong; that self-government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds effort and interest on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to refrain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing, and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right thing at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The Student Council is the organ of the student body and serves as judge in cases where there are those who violate the Honor System. It also attempts to act in any other capacity in which it may be of service to the student body or to any member thereof.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is for the purpose of making this a better place to spend four years. Let us coöperate, therefore, in the movement for better student government, better student life, and a more ideal place in which to work.

FRESHMEN RULES

Following is a list of the regulations passed by the Student Council which every first-year man enrolled in the Freshman Class is duly warned to abide by:

1. Freshmen shall at all times speak to upperclassmen and to each other when passing them on the Campus.

2. Freshmen shall not leave their rooms after nine o'clock except on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights. This rule does not apply to Society meetings, church or prayer meetings, or any other meeting of a duly organized and recognized student organization.

3. Freshmen must attend all athletic contests on the Campus or have some valid excuse for not doing so.

4. Freshmen shall not leave the Village for the week-ends unless they are passing their work.

5. Freshmen shall learn the College songs.

6. Freshmen shall purchase the college colors as provided by the Student Council. These colors are to be worn during the first week of school and at all athletic contests thereafter.

During the past year hazing was abolished and its continued absence depends in a large measure on the coöperation of all Freshmen with the Student Government.

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As Frosh we adore her, as Sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As Juniors patrol her, as Seniors extol her,
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus)

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

THE WAKE FOREST SPIRIT

School spirit is a term that we apply to that enthusiasm and loyalty for the school and its work which impel a student to shape his conduct in such a manner that it will always reflect honor and credit on the school. A student that wants his school to be the best in the State will uphold it at all times by word and deed. He will not permit slanderous remarks concerning its character to pass unchallenged in his presence. He will do the right thing by his school whether at home or visiting other schools as its representative in contests and conventions. He will take an active part in its life and make it a better place because he has once been a student in it.

Class spirit is a phase of school spirit applied on a smaller scale to one's particular class. Class spirit does for a class what school spirit does for the institution as a whole. It is a valuable force in promoting class activities and it deserves to be encouraged. It must never be overlooked, however, that school spirit is greater than class spirit, and that every organization in the school must work together for the common good. Malicious class spirit can do much to defeat the purposes of the school as a whole.

In union there is strength, and this may be said of a school as well as a nation.

At Wake Forest there are certain unwritten laws which make up the Wake Forest spirit. They have grown up during the many past generations of Wake Forest men, and they exist today not as the rules, primarily, of the Student Council, but because the students themselves respect them and enforce them.

The Wake Forest man:

1. On his own campus speaks to everyone he meets regardless of whether or not he knows them.
2. Never cheats on tests or examinations because he knows that cheating is dishonorable and dishonor has no place at Wake Forest.
3. Attends all contests in which the School is a participant.
4. Never cheers when an opponent is penalized.
5. Never razzes the officials in an athletic contest.
6. Knows the school songs and yells.
7. Dresses neatly and cleanly.
8. Shows courtesy and respect always to his professors.
9. Stands whenever the school song is played.
10. Boosts Wake Forest always.

AMENDMENT I

In view of the fact that the passing of worthless checks by Students of Wake Forest College has caused considerable trouble and has brought ill-repute upon the College, be it hereby Resolved:

AMENDMENT V*

1. Realizing that the present system under which Freshman caps are sold is totally unsatisfactory to the Student Government Bodies of Wake Forest College, and furthermore the efficiency and stability of Student Government is threatened because of the lack of sufficient funds to meet its necessary operating expenses, and furthermore that no appreciable progress in Student Government can be attained unless there are sufficient funds to meet the obligations that inevitably must be incurred in the amelioration of said Student Government:

The Student Legislature and the Student Council, in joint session April 19, 1928, passed the following amendment to the Constitution:

(1) That the Secretary of the Student Council shall have the sole power to order and sell Freshman caps, at a price to be designated by the Student Council. The President of the Student Council shall have the power to appoint a committee from the Council to assist the Secretary in distributing said caps at the opening of school if such is deemed necessary. Furthermore all profits derived from the sale of these caps shall be deposited in the treasury of the Student Council to meet any debts incurred in the operation of Student Government. Such debts to be contracted in the discretion of the Student Council.

(2) Also passed that the Student Council shall have the power to regulate the size of said caps.

Adopted by the Student Body April 20, 1928.

*(Repealed—See Amendment VII.)

AMENDMENT VI

In regular meeting May 6, 1929, the Student Council makes the following proposed amendment to the Constitution: That all officers and members of the Student Government, including Student Body officers, members of the Student Council and Student Legislature, elected in the spring election, shall be inaugurated and actually installed into office not later than May 4. The duties of actual office-holding devolves upon the men inaugurated immediately following the inaugural ceremony, any provision of the Constitution to the contrary notwithstanding.

Adopted by the Student Body May 10, 1929.

AMENDMENT VII

Realizing that the wearing of caps by the Freshmen was not in keeping with the spirit of Wake Forest, following a proposal of the Student Council and the Faculty, the Student Body in mass meeting adopted the following amendment:

Beginning with September, 1932, the Freshmen will no longer be compelled to wear caps.

Adopted by the Student Body, March 15, 1932.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Religious activities at Wake Forest are unified under the STUDENT UNION, which embraces the various religious organizations of the campus and links their work with that of the church. While Wake Forest is a denominational school, it should make clear that all religious activities are in no way sectarian and that members of all faiths are invited to join in all projects. In the various religious organizations a non-denominational atmosphere is maintained and each student is equally invited to participate in all activities.

The STUDENT UNION attempts to meet certain social needs of the campus as well as the religious needs. In the "Ask Me" men newcomers will find a friendly helper and guide who is anxious to aid him in any way. A short while after his arrival, each new man will receive a visit from a "Big Brother" representing the STUDENT UNION who will try to aid him in any possible way throughout during orientation week, and at various other times during the school year social functions will be given by the organization to which all students are invited. the year. A reception for new men will be held

While attendance at any of the religious meetings is not compulsory, all students will find a cordial welcome at all and are encouraged to attend as many as they may desire. The unit organizations of the STUDENT UNION are: The Sunday School, The Training Union, The Ministerial Group, The Mission Study Group, and the Prayer Groups.

There are five Sunday School classes which meet at ten o'clock on Sunday mornings. These are: Dr.

N. Y. Gulley, Dean of the Law School, and Dr. W. L. Poteat, President-Emeritus, in the church building; Dr. D. B. Bryan, Dean of The College, in The Administration Building; Dr. A. C. Reid, Professor of Philosophy, and Prof. J. G. Carrol, of the Mathematics Department, in The Alumni Building.

The Training Unions, for student discussions and training in church membership, meet each Sunday night at six-thirty at places to be announced. The morning service is conducted at eleven o'clock by the Pastor, Dr. J. Allen Easley, and the evening service is at eight. Midweek prayer services are on Wednesday at seven forty-five.

During the week morning watch services are conducted at seven-fifteen in the Administration Building and afternoon vespers are conducted on the stone bench in front of this building at six forty-five. The Mission Study Group meets on Tuesday evening and the Ministerial Group meets on Wednesday evening at eight in the Library Building.

STUDENT UNION Council members for 1935-36 are:

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES

Organized in 1835—only a few months after the college itself was founded—the Euzelian and Philomathesian literary societies have closely associated themselves with the history of the college during its first hundred years. Until recently membership in a society was compulsory and every student took an active interest in the work of the societies, this work having been defined as “giving training in parliamentary procedure, cultivating and directing the taste for reading, and forming correct habits for public speaking.”

In recent years membership in the societies has been left up to the student. Every September the two organizations have “open house,” so to speak, and each gives a series of smokers to which every freshman is cordially invited to attend. Since the completion of a new administration building the two groups have furnished two magnificent society halls on the third floor of the structure, the Eus having the South end and the Phis the North.

It is difficult to estimate the value of society training. Some of the most prominent of Wake Forest graduates, numbering governors, federal court judges, and United States senators attribute much of their success to training received while members of one of the literary societies.

The groups meet twice weekly, on Monday and Thursday evenings at seven o'clock, and their doors are always open to men who wish to become affiliated with them. Each society offers four medals annually to the best speaker or orator in his class and medals to first year men for improvement in public speaking.

THE FRATERNITY

A fraternity is perhaps, the most closely knit body of students to be found on a college campus. The ideal organization of this type is one composed of students having the same tastes, interests, and aims. It involves continuous association between a small group of men throughout the time they spend on the campus. To insure your own satisfaction and that of the others with whom you will be thrown, be certain before you accept an invitation to join a fraternity that you are willing to devote a certain amount of your time in Wake Forest College in furthering the interests of that group, and, above all, be certain that the boys are of your own temperament and tastes, or of a type you hope to become by association with them. Fraternity life is not all play, as the magazines would lead you to believe, but demands the unflagging interest and effort of its members in order to hold its position on the campus. You will only get from it what you are willing to put in. Think seriously of what you are willing to do for the organization of your choice as well as what it can do for you.

On behalf of the fraternities on the campus of this College, welcome. We have an old and honored school composed of the highest type of students. Our fraternities, though a small minority of the student body, hold many outstanding men. We depend upon you incoming students, who accept the invitations to pledge, to uphold the standards set by those who have gone before you, and to advance them in every manner you may conceive. Strive to make yourself an asset to the organization with which you choose to associate yourself.

THE PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of one member from each social and professional fraternity. The duties of the Council are to make and enforce rules governing the represented fraternities.

Fraternity Rushing Rules

Below are the fraternity rushing rules by which each fraternity must abide during its rushing period.

1. Rushing season shall start on the day of Frosh registration and extend through a period of four weeks.

2. Freshmen cannot stay in fraternity houses until they are pledged, unless they have a brother that is a member of that fraternity.

3. Freshmen cannot stay in a fraternity house later than nine (9) o'clock, except on Saturday night and on nights of smokers.

4. Each fraternity shall be allowed one smoker during the period of rushing.

5. A notice must be filed with the secretary as to the date of the smoker.

6. There shall be no more than two smokers upon the same night.

7. No fraternity will be permitted to give a dance during the four weeks of rushing.

8. Silence period shall cover the last 24 hours of rushing.

Any fraternity found guilty of violating the above rules shall be punished at the discretion of the council.

THE LIBRARY

The first step in learning to use the Library is to learn the rules and privileges allowed to the readers. Each student can help the Library by observing these rules which are made for the general good.

The unwritten rule in all libraries is to "speak softly, and push back chairs quietly." Discourage conversation by talking only when necessary.

Books for parallel reading, called "reserve books" are kept on shelves behind the circulation desk. When requesting these books at the desk, give the author, title, and the course for which it is reserved. Reserved books are allowed out only during the hours the Library is closed, and are subject to a fine of ten cents an hour or fraction thereof for each overdue book.

Most books, not on reserve or in special demand, are allowed out for two weeks and may be renewed. These books are subject to an overdue fine of five cents a day for each book.

The Library is open on week days from 8:10 to 12:00 in the morning, 1:30 to 5:00 in the afternoon, and 7:00 to 10:30 in the evening. On Sundays it is open from 1:00 to 3:00. No books are allowed to be removed from the shelves on this day.

Students are urged to ask questions freely of the librarian and assistants, whose earnest desire is to make accessible to each student the great treasure of information contained in the Library.

ABSENCES AND CUTS

Each student is allowed to "cut" or be absent from class without penalty as many times a semester as there are hours per week of that particular class. For example, English 1 is a three hour course and every man is allowed three absences without penalty on that course per semester. On a two hour course a student is allowed two cuts. All absences above the allowed number deduct credit from the course at the rate of one quality point for each excessive absence unless they are properly excused by the Faculty Committee on excuses.

Every man who is absent from a course because of illness, a death in his family or some other bona fide reason should make out a written statement of the hours missed and the reason for the absence and turn it over to the Dean immediately on his return to College.

Every student is warned not to drop courses without the explicit permission of the Dean and the Professor of the course. To do otherwise means a call to the Dean's office.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

Chapel Services are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the Chapel period and every man is expected to be present unless he is ill or absent from the College. Services are brief and are usually devotional in form. Prominent speakers in every walk of life are often on the program and the College spares no time or effort to make the programs well worth one's while.

SELF-HELP

More than half of the Student Body do outside work to defray a part of their expenses. These jobs take the form of waiting on tables, CWA jobs, assistantships for upperclassmen, work on the tennis and golf courses, employment in private homes as chauffeurs, gardeners, and butlers, and salesmen for clothes, confections, novelties and what-have-you.

Watch the bulletin board as to when applicants should report for the CWA jobs.

No jobs are handed out on silver platters. The man who lands the job available does so only by ingenuity and aggressiveness. The Dean will be glad to talk to men who are in search of work and direct them as to where jobs may be found.
